

You'll have lots of fun with it.

Hey!
There's a flying disc in your bag!

Flying Your Disc!

• Don't throw the flying disc with strangers or friends who don't want to play.

• Your dog!

• Mom and Dad or any adult you know.

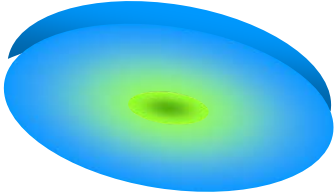

• A friend.

You can play with:

playing with some people.

You'll have lots of fun

Who can you play with?

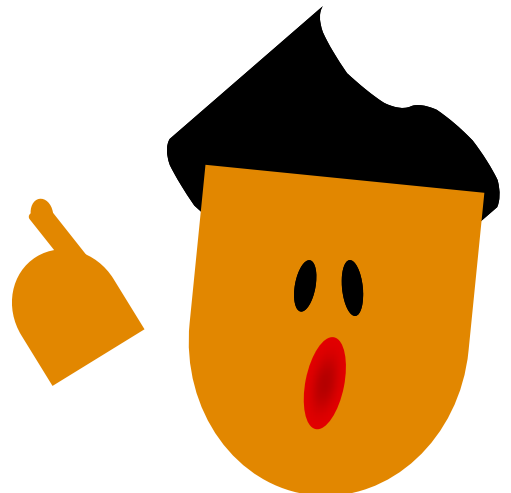

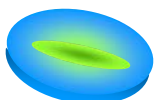

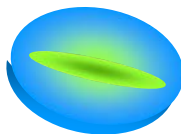

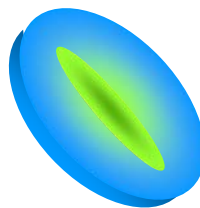

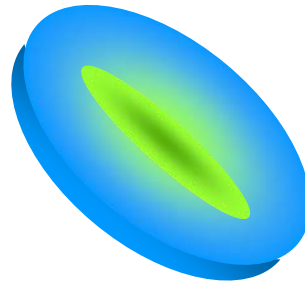

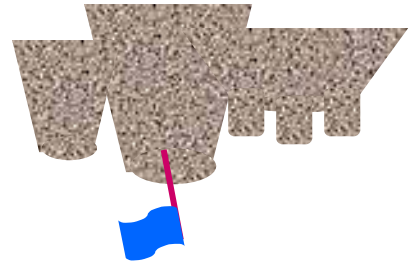

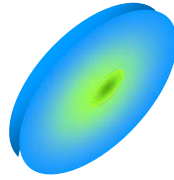

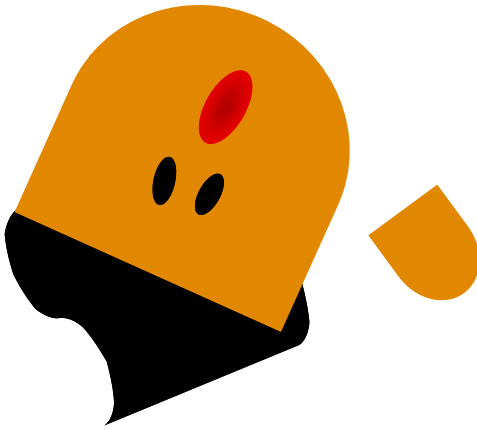

When you want to have fun flying your disc, it's important to remember:

• Who?

• What?

• Where?

What other things can you think of?

- Use it like a shovel in sand.
- Play Fetch with your dog.
- Play Tag and other games.
- Toss it back and forth with a friend.

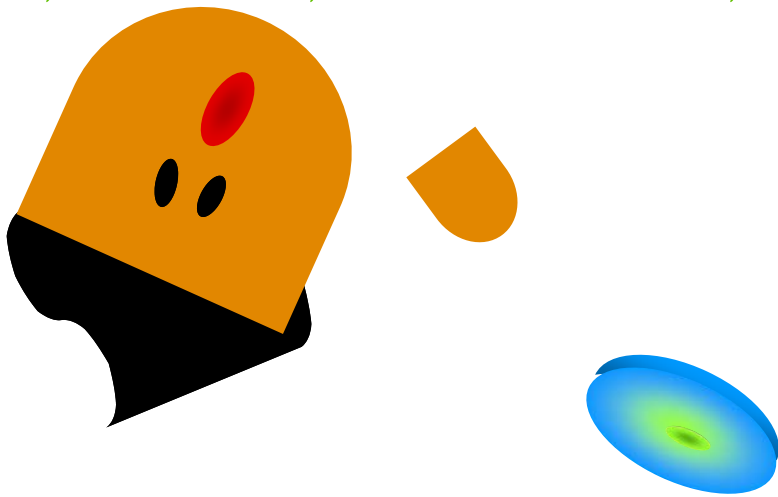

Lots of different things! You can:

What can you do with a flying disc?

Remember to:

- Take turns.
- Take aim and throw the disc.
- Get help if you need it.
- Say “Let’s play something else” when you’re done.

- Just ask "Can I play here?" if you need to know.
- At the beach.
- At the park.
- On the playground.
- In the back yard.

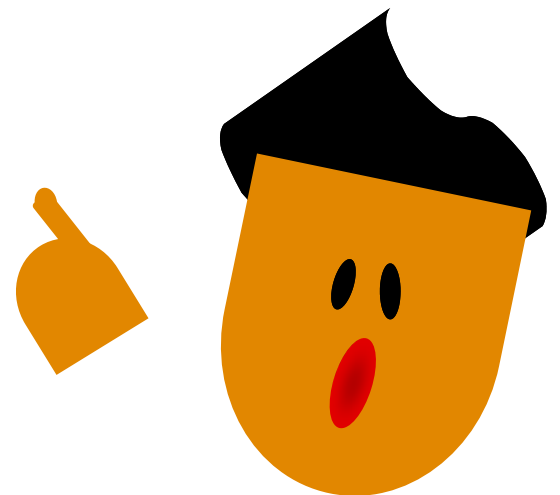

area will do:

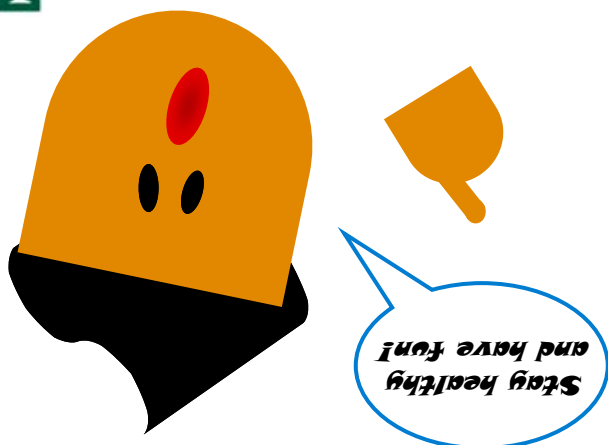

Lots of different places! Any open, outside

Where can you play with a flying disc?

Remember to:

- Use the disc safely.
- Don't throw the disc to people who aren't playing with you.
- Keep the disc out of your mouth.
- Catch the disc with your hands.
- Say "Let's play catch" to start the fun.

1-800-333-4530
<http://card-usf.fmh.usf.edu>

The University of South Florida
Center for Autism and Related Disabilities

This booklet and flying disc were provided and developed by the healthy folks at

Hey!

Remember to:

- Stay away from windows and doors.
- Don't throw the disc at cars or bicycles.
- Stay out of the street!
- Don't throw the disc over fences or into other yards.
- Say "Where is my flying disc?" if it's lost.

